about his behavior. The matter shall then be treated as concluded with a recording, to that effect, made in the Complaint Register.

- (d) However, before proceeding with the inquiry, the Committee shall decide whether the delinquent deserves to be placed under suspension or prohibited from entering the premises pending inquiry, keeping in mind the nature and gravity of the misdemeanor complained of. In case the Committee concludes that such action is necessary, it shall recommend to the chairman accordingly.
- (e) The ICC shall accord a fair and reasonable opportunity to the delinquent to defend himself and shall ensure observance of the principles of natural justice. The accused shall be asked to retort to the statement of allegations and submit it to the Committee within the stipulated time.
- (f) The statements and other evidence acquired in the inquiry process will be considered confidential data.
- (g) If the written explanation of the accused is not found to be satisfactory or if he does not provide any written explanation, the Committee shall recommend at the outset whether the offense deserves a minor or a major penalty.
- (h) An officer in the organization could be designated to advise and assistance to each party if requested by either of them. Similarly, the complainant and the accused will have the right to be represented or accompanied by a member of the staff committee, a friend, or a colleague.
- (i) The Committee will organize verbal hearings with the complainant and the accused if the written statement of the accused has grounds of his innocence.
- (j) Statement of Complainant will be recorded first in the presence of the accused. The accused may cross question the complaint if there is a need to do so in the presence of some members of the committee.
- (k) The Committee will take testimonies of other relevant persons and review the evidence whenever necessary. Care should be taken to avoid any retaliation against the witnesses by giving the necessary protection.
- (l) The Committee will decide after carefully reviewing the circumstances, evidence, and relevant statements in all fairness.
- (m) If the accused, being provided with a fair opportunity to participate in the inquiry and defend him/her fails to participate in the inquiry, the Committee will conduct the inquiry ex-party.
- (n) In the event of the Committee deciding that the delinquent be imposed a minor penalty, a specific minor penalty shall be recommended by the Committee to the chairman who shall then expeditiously act on such recommendation.
- (o) The Committee will ensure confidentiality during the inquiry process.
